Planetary Garden" and Other Writings (Penn Studies in Landscape Architecture):

1 of 1 review helpful Three Stars By Paul J Bach Fairly cerebral not quite the poetic essays I had anticipated Celebrated landscape architect Gilles Clément may be best known for his public parks in Paris including the Parc André Citroën and the garden of the Musée de la Ville de Paris but he describes himself as a gardener To care for and cultivate a plot of land a capable gardener must observe in order to act and work with rather than against the natural ecosystem of the garden In this sense he suggests we should think of the entire planet as a garden Gilles Clément horticultural engineer entomologist landscape architect and writer occupies a special place in French professional circles All Clément's concepts speak about nature as well as about humanity they evoke a possible world
