151 of 151 review helpful Avoid this HEAVILY EDITED collection By Rory Feehan This book is an utter disgrace It is far from The Essential Hunter S Thompson as it is heavily edited throughout by Jann Wenner and Paul Scanlon So what the reader is getting is a chopped and butchered version of Hunter S Thompson s original articles We are not even talking about excerpts here the articles in this collection bear no resemb From the bestselling author of The Rum Diary and king of ldquo Gonzo rdquo journalism Hunter S Thompson comes the definitive collection of the journalist rsquo s finest work from Rolling Stone Fear and Loathing at Rolling Stone showcases the roller coaster of a career at the magazine that was his literary home ldquo Buy the ticket take the ride rdquo was a favorite slogan of Hunter S Thompson and it pretty much defined both his work and ldquo A tome as varied and enthralling in its contents as Thompson rsquo s satchel rdquo mdash Men rsquo s Journal ldquo Glorious You can witness Thompson rsquo s development and deterioration unspool in real time rdquo mdash Ma
